

VILLA LAS BRISAS: A MEDITERRANEAN MASTERPIECE ON THE FRENCH RIVIERA

Experience ultimate luxury at Villa Las Brisas, a breathtaking retreat that exudes sophistication and Mediterranean charm. Set in a prime position along the iconic French Riviera, this villa is elegant in design and presents a sense of tranquillity, serving as a private haven just moments away from the lively allure of St. Tropez.

The villa with seven en-suite bedrooms, accommodating up to 14 guests, a fitness room, sauna, hammam, spa and tennis court, is owned by Carol Asscher, a renowned tastemaker and celebrated social figure. Her impeccable eye for detail and passion for creating refined properties is reflected throughout Villa Las Brisas.

In collaboration with the creative genius of Alessandra Home Interiors, and taking inspiration from the world's finest five and six-star hotels, Asscher has achieved a design triumph which masterfully balances light, space, and refined aesthetics. Every detail from art and bespoke lighting has been thoughtfully considered to create an atmosphere of sophistication. Some of the many striking features include stylish terraces and a serene infinity pool – both of which perfectly capture the essence of the St. Tropez lifestyle, present beautiful panoramic views of the Azure coastline and offer direct access to the iconic Pampelonne Beach.

Beyond its exquisite design, Villa Las Brisas offers a level of personalised service that enhances every aspect of the guest experience. Whether arranging exclusive restaurant bookings, private yacht charters, luxury car rentals, or helicopter transfers, the villa's dedicated team ensures that no request is too extravagant. And culinary artistry takes centre stage here, with Mediterranean-inspired dishes crafted with fresh, seasonal ingredients, which can be enhanced by thoughtfully curated wine pairings. The bespoke approach of the team, coupled with an unwavering attention to detail, guarantees an extraordinary stay.

Villa Las Brisas is perfect for those seeking a luxurious escape, where guests can indulge in an unforgettable stay on one of the world's most sought-after coastlines.
